Which journal should I submit to?

Is the article original research, review article, protocol/guidelines, case report or ‘images in…’?

If yes, is it important to you that your article appears in a solely Open Access journal*?

If yes, submit to Veterinary Record Open. If no, proceed to the next step.

Original research, protocols or guidelines. Is of international/UK significance or novelty or will influence the way veterinary medicine is practised?

If yes, submit to Veterinary Record. If no, proceed to the next step.

Review articles. Is it:

- Systematic, in-depth or other review
- CPD/opinionated clinical review

If yes, submit to In Practice. If no, proceed to the next step.

Case report. Is of international/UK significance or novelty, ie, index case?

If yes, submit to Veterinary Record Case Reports. If no, proceed to the next step.

‘Images in…’

Submit to Veterinary Record Case Reports.

If you are unsure where to submit your article please contact us on editorial@bva-edit.co.uk for advice.

All research submitted to any of our journals should meet required standards for scientific quality and ethics for consideration for publication.

*Veterinary Record also has an Open Access option.